

Kara Adams
Speaker & Author

Is a sought-out speaker and well-known author of the upcoming book, Hidden Treasure: 5 Steps to Transformational Self-Love.

Kara's professional background includes more than 15 years of marketing strategy, improving company performance, and product utilization in the financial services industry. She became known as the expert in marketing strategy and client experience for the largest resale auto auction house in the world, worth 16.7 billion dollars, and as the Vice President of Marketing for the largest locally based credit union in Riverside County – a 1.3-billion-dollar financial institution, she is known for improving customer journeys and conversion while producing rapid growth in both strong and difficult economies.

But Kara's real claim to fame, and why so many talented women seek her out, is her powerful story of how she reclaimed herself as a "Hidden Treasure" and rediscovered how to live a life full of joy, meaning, and purpose. Kara Adams teaches how to step into your most powerful self through magnificent self-love so that you can be the amazing woman you were always meant to be!

"Wow. Kara has written a beautiful piece of work. I am in awe of her power of description and her ability to evoke emotion. I bow down to her strength, her courage, her character, and the representation of the Divine Feminine that she is. I have been called tenacious, but I could never hold a candle to her tenacity. Brava, my friend!"
